Dearest mother,

Keep it up! Two letters in two days was doing pretty well.

We are right in the midst of work already. I went to my first Chemistry lab. appointment this afternoon. What I have forgotten would fill a book, but I suppose I'll get along all right.

Reading and speaking is O.K. too. We each had to give a little talk about our home towns the very first thing. Told about the sanitariums, the fisheries, and the old Hickory. Betty Barrett was sitting next to me and she said she wanted to correct the impression I had given that Martinsville was the metropolis of the state. The instructor complimented her on her accent and said she did not speak like most Hoosiers. Shall have herself a time trying to correct mine this year.

Please send my new clothes when they're ready. I'm anxious to see them & want to send home my laundry. Also send my leather brief case.

✓ Glad to hear Mr. Kriner thought I was worth my pay and can come back next summer. Wish they had something for me to do during the holidays so I could earn my fare.

Tell me Mrs. Hyndman's new address in Cincinnati so I can thank her for her little gift.

Ohyes! Please write Miss Macgregor, Head of House, Lower Court, and approve Mary Sig, John, & the Brockton Roses as chaperones for this year, please. I have not written Mary yet, but will soon.

Dad wrote that he had been to Punch Lick. Did he mean again? Give him my love

Much love,

P.S. Can you take Grace away some stationery & Ivory soap in L.C.?
